

POSH
By Richard Sorokin

Posh used today means a well to do in type of person. The word comes from the old cruise days when the wealthy went to Europe for the summer by boat. Air conditioning was yet to be invented.

The word P O S H really means gets a cabin on the Port side going Out (to Europe) and on the Starboard side Home bound. This gives you the sunny side both ways.